

TERMS OF USE

Legal Notice

Please read carefully the following terms of use of the Will Check Service, provided by the County of Carleton Law Association (“CCLA”). Your access to and use of the Will Check Service is subject to these terms. If you do not agree with one or more of these terms, we ask you not to access or use the Will Check Service. You are deemed to have accepted these terms of use if you access or use the Will Check Service.

Representations Regarding Information Accuracy and Use

The Will Check Service is provided strictly for the convenience and assistance of the legal community in locating wills. All information submitted to the Will Check Service is submitted by the legal community and is not independently verified by CCLA. CCLA does not guarantee or represent that the information is accurate, complete, current or suitable for any purpose other than the coordination and sharing of information. The CCLA represents that it will collect, use and retain the information submitted to the Will Check Service only in accordance with the Will Check Privacy Policy.

By submitting information to the Will Check Service, you confirm that all personal information you have submitted is accurate and complete. You confirm that you have taken reasonable steps to ensure that all information regarding wills or other client information is accurate and complete. You further represent that you have obtained a Client Release from each individual for who you have submitted information or have otherwise obtained such individual’s consent to the collection, use and retention of the information submitted, in accordance with the Will Check Service Privacy Policy.

The information contained in the Will Check Service, including terms and conditions, is subject to change or can be updated without prior notice. Please contact us for more current information regarding services offered by CCLA.

Limitation of Liability & Indemnification

You agree that in no event will CCLA or be liable for any damages suffered by you, either directly or indirectly, as a result of the use or inability to use the Will Check Service or its contents. Further, you specifically indemnify CCLA for any losses, including legal fees, associated with any claim by the third party related to the proper use of the Wills Check Service, including but not limited to losses associated with any breach by you of any representations made by you herein.

Availability of Will Check Service

The products, services and information described in the Will Check Service are currently only available to be used by East Region lawyers and are only available to register wills for individuals resident in the East Region at the time of the making of the Will. Please contact CCLA for more information on whether these products and services can be provided in your jurisdiction and for details.

Trade-marks and Copyright

Will Check, and related words and logos, as well as the names of other products or services of CCLA, are trade names, trade-marks or registered trade-marks of CCLA. The names of other companies, products or services referred to in the Will Check Service may be the trade-marks of their respective owners. Any unauthorized use of any of these trade names or trade-marks is prohibited.
